

Session title "Connecting with Zones"

Learning objectives: 1. observation within a zone, to identify plants, climate, cardinal points and the connection between these elements;
2. learn how to make a basemap and present it

Resources needed: land with a permaculture design

| ACTIVITY | TIME | COACH | METHOD | MATERIALS |
|---|--------------------|---|------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Intro in the history Of the project | 30 min. | chronological order Of the years | Presentation + Q&A | Whiteboard + photos |
| To see the place | 30 min. | guided walk: explain about cultivation, the soil, compost, the structures, etc. | tour | |
| break | 15 min | break | break | |
| observation in different zones (or within zone 0-1 if there are Various zones 0-1) | 45 min. | take notes of the different elements in your zone & think why they are there | Division in groups of 4-5 | Notebooks + pens |
| Coming back & calming down | 5 min. | Circle holding hands and singing a song | energizer | |
| intro to maps | 10 min. | what kind of maps exist? what are the essential components of a map? | brainstorm | Whiteboard |
| basemap creation | 30 min. | draw a map of the zone on paper | Division in groups of 4-5 | A4 paper + color pens |
| presentations | 5 min per group | Show your basemap and explain about the elements and relationships Between them | Group presentations | |